

Re K-LOVE - this station has been a source of encouragement in my daily life. I feel strongly that it has a positive effect on the community by bringing people together to help those in need in various ways would be a great loss to many if it is displaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming.